

“I’m New At This!”

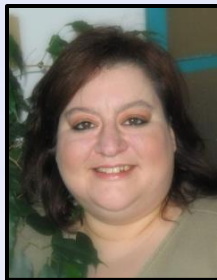

Launching Your Interpreting Career

IDHHC

1630 South 6th St.
Springfield, IL 62703

Friday – April 3rd
Time: 6p – 9p

Anne Orozco, CI & CT, NIC, is an interpreter dedicated to the ideals of the profession of interpreting, having contributed both in the field as a working professional and for RID as a volunteer on National Committees. She has been working as a professional interpreter since 1993. Ms. Orozco is certified with the RID and sat on the Board of the Illinois State Affiliate Chapter. She is currently providing interpreting services for a Deaf attorney and consumers at the non-profit legal advocacy agency, Equip for Equality, in Chicago, Illinois. Ms. Orozco also works as a freelance interpreter in a multitude of settings. She has also long been involved with RID on the Regional and National level and was a case reviewer for the RID National Ethical Practices Committee, a member of the National Ethical Practices Oversight Committee writing policy for the Ethical Practices System while being the chairperson to the RID Professional Standards Committee.

This workshop will discuss in detail the transition from ITP student to professional interpreter. Topics covered include but are not limited to: Invoicing, Professional Networking, Business Practices, Resume' Development, Professional Affiliations and the role and relationship of the interpreter in the Deaf community / Interpreting community.

This workshop is ideal for students currently in an ITP practicum, recently graduated an ITP or have been working in the field for less than 3 years. Some background knowledge about this topic would be helpful but is not required. Discussion and demonstration of some vocabulary may be demonstrated as well as a discussion of ethical issues that arise.

*Workshop will be taught in spoken ENGLISH.
If accommodation is needed for interpreter,
request MUST be made 2 weeks before workshop date.*

0.3 CEUs – P.S.

You must attend entire workshop to earn CEUs.
