Satisfied with your interpreter?
Want to use same interpreter again?
Not satisfied with your interpreter?
Find an interpreting agency.
Request an interpreter.

Nowadays, there is a shortage of interpreters in the Deaf community. Deaf and Hard of Hearing people get frustrated with interpreters. Participants will understand more about what is happening in the interpreting community. This workshop is for all deaf, hard of hearing and deaf blind people who want to ask everything about their rights as a deaf consumer.

Kimberly Kuhns, M.A., full time tenure-track faculty member in ASL-English Interpretation Program at Columbia College Chicago. She holds B.A. from Gallaudet University and a M.A. in Teaching America Sign Language as a Foreign Language from the Teachers College at Columbia University (NYC). Previously, she taught ASL and Interpreting classes at University of South Florida as Visiting Instructor and also taught ASL classes at Montclair State University in New Jersey, in Dept. of Linguistics as a Visiting Specialist. She is a member of NAD, FAD, IAD, RID, ILRID, ASLTA, CIT and WCRAD. She served on the Program Committee for RID 2007 conference. She is a Member at Large for ILRID. She is also on RAD 2009 Board for Communication Access. She is one of the Deaf professional consultants for ASLSOL (www.aslsol.com).
