Workshop will be taught in ASL. No interpreter provided.
Harper College
1200 W. Algonquin Road
Palatine, IL 60067
May 18 & 19 – Building A – Room 238

This 2-day evening workshop is designed for ASL interpreters who are motivated to provide legal interpreting for Deaf, Hard of Hearing.

The workshop will focus on being able to convey contextual information, as well as the intent of the message into ASL in sensible manner with appropriate cultural incorporation. Linguistic and cultural adaptation through effective ASL structure will be covered. Participants will have plenty of hands-on activities to practice such as Miranda and how to use appropriate ASL structure and classifier to convey with reasonable clarity and sensibility.

Participants will leave this workshop with increased confidence using ASL classifiers in legal setting!

Nigel Howard has taught in interpreter training programs for over 10 years, and worked as a Deaf Interpreter for over 14 years. He has conducted workshops on Interpreting development and professionalism all across Canada, Japan, England, South Africa, South America. Additionally, he co-authored ASL Medical Interpreting courses and has taught this course through Canada and United States, including CATIE at St. Catherine College in Minnesota and Mount Sinai Hospital.
