Two Rivers Interpreter Cooperative

Presents

A Morning of Classifiers

With

Peter Cook

Bottom line: If you want your signing skills as close to ASL as possible, you must incorporate classifiers! You may say to yourself, I understand what classifiers are, but how can I use them? When can I use them? This workshop will help the participants to focus on classifiers and applications to discourse. There will be a LOT of hands on activities to explore the eight different types of classifiers. There will also be opportunities for participants to use classifiers in their own narrative stories.

This is a fun and challenging workshop for any one who wants to polish their sign skills.
A must for interpreters! Skill Level: Intermediate to Advanced

About Peter Cook

Peter S. Cook is an internationally reputed Deaf performing artist whose works incorporate American Sign Language, pantomime, storytelling, acting, and movement.

Peter has traveled extensively around the country and aboard with Flying Words Project to promote ASL Literature with Kenny Lerner since 1986. Peter has appeared in Live from Off Center's "Words on Mouth" (PBS) and "United States of Poetry" (PBS) produced by Emmy winner Bob Holman. Peter teaches at Columbia College where he received the 1997 Excellence in Teaching award.

In 1998, Peter set up a video production called PC Production and is now based in Chicago.

Peter was featured nationally in festivals such as the Jonesboro National Storytelling Festival, Oklahoma City Winter Tales, Illinois Storytelling Festival, Indiana Hoosier Storytelling Festival, Eugene Oregon Multi-Cultural Festival, The Deaf Way II and the Millennium Stage at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C.

Peter was invited to the White House to join the National Book Festival in 2003. Internationally, Peter has worked with Deaf storytellers and poets in Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Netherlands, Austria and Japan.

Peter lives in Chicago and teaches in ASL-English Interpretation Department at Columbia College. He loves to tell stories to his son.
