TEAMING is more than just sitting together: it means WORKING together. Even seasoned professionals need to re-look at their own model of teaming. Let's have a discussion to refresh our understanding of TEAMING, review what works, what doesn't (and why!) and come up with a current Best Practice that can be a useful guide for staff, agency or independent interpreters.

Chris Skoczynski, CSC, CI and CT has an MA in the Linguistics of American Sign Language from Gallaudet University. She has been an interpreter trainer for 14 years and currently works as a staff interpreter and mentor at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee's Deaf/ Hard of Hearing Program.
